FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCE. OFFICE OF THE DATLY APPRAL, ! MEMPHIS, October 1, 1869.

The money market is quiet and rates are still strong. A large amount is falling due between this and the 4th inst. and so far appearances would indicate that every piece of paper will be protected The demand for money has a bad effect on cotton, as the necessities of our mer chants are so great that they must sell, Exchange is in excess of the demand. Rates are generally 1/2 off on cotton bills for all points East,

BOARD OF CORMISSIONERS FOR SHELRY)

COUNTY, TENN.—JULY TERM.

SATURDAY, September 25, 1869.

ORDERED, By the Board of Commissioners for Sheldy county, Tenn., that the Clerk of the County Count be, and he is hereby authorized and instructed, to advertise in the Manufacture of the County County and Avglanche. Wednesday. Orders come in from the interior for large amounts of supplies, and mearly every order now received is accompanied by the cotton. We are glad to see that plactor, and the specifications must be explicit, giving the accompanied by the estion. We are giad to see that planters are disposed to forward enough of the staple to relieve the interchart. As soon as this is done we may expect higher prices.

Immense amounts of goods are going westward from this point, and it seems to usthat dealers are overloading themselves. Those who went East expecting to buy $10,000 worth of goods have been prevalled upon to take $20,000 or $30,000 worth, and
